 - Who won the award in 2019?
 - Who won the award in 2018?
- Students can check out some of the other videos on the site as well.
- Students will find a video about one of these award winners from previous years and write down one thing they learned about how this player made the world we live in a better place.
- Students can use Google to search for more information about their selected award winner.

During Program

- Students will:

- Discuss the mission/vision/values of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- Discuss what they learned about Walter Payton and his legacy.
- Share who they selected and one thing they learned about that person.
- Learn about how the game of football teaches how to commit yourself to something bigger than just yourself.
- Learn teams not only exist on the field but more importantly in the world.
- Learn how to give back and serve their community.

After the Program

- Students can take what they've learned from the pre-program research and the actual program and write or type an essay on what they learned from this experience and then what can they do to make their community a better place.
- Students can present this information to each other during class.
